Young African Scholars Program

An intensive academic experience for outstanding African student leaders

2017 YALE YOUNG AFRICAN SCHOLARS PROGRAM

AN OFFICIAL PROGRAM OF YALE UNIVERSITY, IN PROUD PARTNERSHIP WITH HIGHERLIFE FOUNDATION,
WILL BE HOSTED IN THREE LOCATIONS:

GHANA: 29 JULY - 4 AUGUST

RWANDA: 7 - 13 AUGUST

ZIMBABWE: 18 - 24 AUGUST

THIS PROGRAM IS FREE FOR ALL PARTICIPANTS.

YYAS is a seven-day residential program designed for African secondary school students who have the talent, drive, energy and ideas to make meaningful impact as young leaders. This high-intensity program introduces students to the demanding U.S. university application process and requirements, while giving them the opportunity to participate in lectures and seminars taught by Yale faculty, local practitioners, and students currently enrolled at Yale. Topics covered range from diplomacy to education, urbanization, energy, and health. Admission is highly selective.

YYAS is open to African students who intend to complete secondary school in 2018 or 2019. Applicants must be 18 years or younger at the time of the program.
